Handling Delayed, Lost, and Damaged Luggage

Delayed baggage

We know delays can be distressing. But do not worry. We will do everything to ensure your trip goes as planned. If you do not receive your baggage within the specified period, contact the Air India personnel in the arrival hall to report the issue and receive assistance in filing a Property Irregularity Report. We will provide you with a copy for your records once the report is filed.

International

If you don't receive your checked-in baggage within 24 hours of arrival in the foreign destination and you don't have access to your wardrobe, you are entitled to a one-time interim expense, listed as per

Domestic

If you don't receive your checked-in baggage within 24 hours of arrival, you are entitled to a one-time interim expense, listed as per Air India's policy. However, this compensation

Lost baggage

Luggage will be categorised as lost if we are unable to trace it for 21 days from the date of filing the Property Irregularity Report. All claims shall be substantiated with an itemised list of contents, description, age, and proof of purchase or ownership of all items.

Damaged baggage

Luggage is designed to protect its content. With use, your luggage will have minor cuts, scratches, scuffs, stains, dents, soil, or other normal wear and tear that does not affect the functionality and usage of the bag. We trust you understand that we are not responsible for this type of damage or any of the following:

- Damage to overpacked/oversized bags
- Damage to bags with fragile or perishable items
- Baggage with manufacturing defects

Avoid carrying valuables such as jewellery, encashable articles, negotiable papers, and currency in your checked baggage. We will not be liable for loss or damage to or delayed delivery of fragile or perishable articles or items, such as money, jewellery, silverware, cameras, electronics, photographic equipment, negotiable papers, securities, heirlooms, antiques, artefacts, work of
